

Patient Name: Mast Vijay Thakare
Age: 10 Years Gender: Male
IHC No.: I-271/23

Specimen received on: 26/06/2023
Specimen reported on: 05/07/2023
Ref By: Dr Girish Badarkhe Sir

Page 2

IMMUNOHISTOCHMISTRY REPORT

IMPRESSION:

- Cervical lymph node biopsy (1 Paraffin block, labeled as KNC-516/23):
- Histology and IHC findings favor Classic Hodgkin lymphoma.

NOTE: Kindly preserve the blocks provided with the report.

End of report -----

Rahul Patil

Dr Rahul Patil
M.D.Pathology
Consultant Histopathologist
MCI-12/45637

CONDITIONS OF REPORTING

- Kindly preserve the blocks provided with the report.
- This report is based on blocks or tissue provided.
- It is presumed that the sample or blocks belong to patient named in the test requisition form.
- For samples/ paraffin blocks received from outside; the nature of fixative and fixation time is not available.
- External/ internal controls for IHC are satisfactory.
- IHC Test is not valid on alcohol fixed, decalcified tissue and poorly fixed tissue samples.
- Clinical correlation is always essential during interpretation of histopathology/ IHC results, in case any discrepancy please contact on laboratory number provided.
- Blocks are handed over to patient for second opinion if required.
- All IHC tests are performed on manual platform with Dako (Denmark) and Master diagnostica (Spain) antibodies.
- CD3 (Clone use)- "EP41"
- CD20 (Clone use)- "L26"
- CD15 (Clone use)- "EP10".
- CD 30(Clone use)- "BFR-H2".
- PAX5 (Clone use)- "QB-END/10"
- EBV LMP1 (Clone Use)- "CS-1-4"
- ALK (Clone use)- "5A4"
- GATA3 (Clone use)- "L50 823"
- Mib 1 (Clone use)- "SP6".